

MARK GROSS – OFFICIAL BIOGRAPHY

Mark Gross is a polished, well-written standup comedian who has made repeat appearances on The Tonight show with Jay Leno; as well as appearing on NBC's Late Friday, National Lampoon's Funny Money, New Joke City and Comics Unleashed with Byron Allen. You've seen him on Comedy Central's Premium Blend as well as being the writer and producer of Comedy Central's Live at the Majestic. Mark was a writer and producer of the ABC sitcom Rodney (where he was snubbed at the Emmy's for his memorable, non-speaking role as Policeman # 3, in the final episode).

Mark Gross is also a recording artist with Capitol Records who proudly released his freshman album entitled Meet Mark Gross, available in stores now. Mark describes his material as, "Things that I find funny."

Mark's material has been stolen by some of the biggest names in comedy. Mark is a regular guest on The Bob and Tom Show. He's received standing ovations and he's been booed off stage. If you like him, you're right. If you don't like him, you probably don't like sunny days, beer, ice cream, fun, baby chickens, winning money at a blackjack table or being naked.

Before you die do yourself a favor - see the Grand Canyon... and Mark Gross.
